

About

WD-40 VOICE™ is a special advisory board of WD-40 brand fans. These fans provide feedback and testimonials to WD-40 Company, and are encouraged to share their opinions and insights by posting in the Fan Club and on blogs, forums and other social media.

Requirements

The only requirement for participation in the WD-40 VOICE is membership in the WD-40 Fan Club (free to join) and a sincere desire to be heard. While we do not require members of the WD-40 VOICE to engage in all activities (e.g., new product testing, surveys, group discussions, etc.), we do expect them to participate on a regular basis.

Spreading the Word

While a post to a blog, forum or other social media is not expected or required, commentary is appreciated in any of our online communities:
